

Scuola democratica

learning for democracy

Call for panel

The third edition of the International Conference of the journal “Scuola Democratica” (June 3-6, 2024, University of Cagliari) is devoted to the needs and prospects of “Education and/or social justice”.

The conference will be held in-presence. Further details on the conference theme are published on the page:

<https://www.scuolademocratica-conference.net/>

Theoretical reflections and empirical analyses (qualitative and quantitative, large-scale, or focused on specific contexts) that aim at identifying the plurality of factors that contribute to producing inclusion/exclusion, equality/inequality, and recognition/non-recognition of diversity, in other words, social justice and injustice, are warmly welcome.

“Scuola Democratica” invites researchers, teachers and practitioners to submit panel proposals pertaining to the conference themes titled "Education and/or Social Justice."

Panel proposals can be submitted until October 30, 2023 by following the link:

<https://www.scuolademocratica-conference.net/call-for-panels/>